ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Allie Nicole. Born and raised in Los Angeles, and have lived in the heart of Nashville for almost 5 years with my fur baby, Bella. I have gravitated towards art and all things creative for as long as I can remember. Over the past 15+ years I have developed and nurtured an exclusive collection of skills, as I found my way into graphic design, illustration, marketing, branding, product development, home staging and event planning. I have worked within a variety of different markets, such as, kids based businesses, real estate, airbnb's, entertainment industry, high-end events, retail and many more.

What sets me apart is my knowledge, expertise and unique ability to approach any given market to create a special experience for your audience. My goals are to design fun, engaging and eye catching pieces, whether it be illustrations for your special event or marketing pieces to help grow your business, and anything else you can dream up!

The art I create is hand-illustrated, bold, colorful and whimsical with a modern flair. It's inspired by my life, my interests, and my surroundings.

Being able to connect and relate to others is my passion, and creating special pieces that others appreciate and want as a part of a meaningful milestone or lifestyle is what it's all about!
